Thank you for using our printer friendly story page.

Return to story

Prep girls basketball: UW recruit Zastrow leads All-State team

Staff and news services
March 10, 2007

University of Wisconsin recruit Lin Zastrow of Jefferson has been named Miss Basketball by the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association, which released its All-State team today.

Zastrow, a 6-foot-4 forward who can play all five positions, was a unanimous selection to the Division 2 team, repeating as an All-State selection. She led the Eagles to a 22-2 record as a senior and a Southern Lakes Conference title. A member of Jefferson's 2005 WIAA Division 2 state championship team, Zastrow finished with 1,627 career points.

Three local players - senior guard Emily Gerber of DeForest, senior guard Marissa Young of Monroe and senior forward Katie Sutter of Barneveld - were named first-team All-State.

Gerber, a member of the Division 1 team, averaged 12.6 points per game in the regular season while leading the Norskies to a share of their sixth straight Badger North Conference title. She earned second-team WBCA honors as a junior.

Young, a member of the Division 2 team, averaged 14.2 points, 4.1 rebounds, 3.6 steals and 3.1 assists to lead Monroe to the Badger South title. A St. Joseph's (Ind.) recruit, she started on Monroe's 2006 Division 2 state title team.

Sutter averaged 12 points and 6.7 rebounds this season in leading the Eagles to the Six Rivers East Conference crown and a third straight berth in the WIAA Division 4 state tournament, where Barneveld will play Flambeau today for the championship.

Three area players received honorable mention standing from the WBCA, all in Division 2: Madison Edgewood senior Haylie Linn, an Indiana recruit; Columbus junior Jeanne Price; and Lakeside Lutheran senior Lindsey Wetzel.

The Associated Press All-State team will be released Tuesday.

Return to story

madison.com is operated by Capital Newspapers, publishers of the Wisconsin State Journal, The Capital Times, Agri-View and Apartment Showcase. All contents Copyright ©2007, Capital Newspapers. All rights reserved.